PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO CS REGULATIONS

Re: On Call Allowances (こり子) Proposal: To amend an incorrect reference within the first paragraph which relates to On Call Allowance Rates at Annex C2 (i). Annex C2 (i) no longer exists and has been renamed Annex C2 47. On-Call Allowances Last updated 31 May 2012 - Amendment No 12-009 Corporate Leadership Group — Terms and Conditions Exclusions Provided their pay does not already include an element for on-call commitments, civil servants who are eligible to claim overtime may claim on-call allowances at the rates set out in Annex C2(i) if they satisfy the following conditions: - a) On-Call - Home Payable to a civil servant who has a specific rostered commitment to remain continuously and immediately available for recall to duty, at home, outside their normal conditioned hours. b) On-Call - Radio Pager or Mobile Telephone Payable to a civil servant who has a specific rostered commitment to remain continuously and immediately available for recall to duty by means of a radio pager or mobile telephone outside their normal conditioned hours. Civil servants issued with radio pagers/mobile telephones may move around freely, subject to remaining in range of the equipment and being available to return to work quickly, if required. c) Other Call Out Arrangements (DHSS, Water Authority, DOT, DTI, DHA and Customs & Excise) Other arrangements may be made by the IOM Civil Service Joint Negotiating Committee for the call-out arrangements for certain groups of civil servants. ### Proposed Amendment: 47. On-Call Allowances Provided their pay does not already include an element for on-call commitments, civil servants who are eligible to claim overtime may claim on-call allowances at the rates set out in *Annex C2 if they satisfy the following conditions: - a) On-Call - Home Payable to a civil servant who has a specific rostered commitment to remain continuously and immediately available for recall to duty, at home, outside their normal conditioned hours.	Ref:	C S Regulations Handbook 12-034 Proposal: To amend an incorrect reference within the first paragraph which relates to On Call Allowance Rates at Annex C2 (i). Annex C2 (i) no longer exists and has been renamed Annex C2 47. On-Call Allowances Last updated 31 May 2012 - Amendment No 12-009 Corporate Leadership Group — Terms and Conditions Exclusions Provided their pay does not already include an element for on-call commitments, civil servants who are eligible to claim overtime may claim on-call allowances at the rates set out in Annex C2(i) if they satisfy the following conditions: a) On-Call - Home Payable to a civil servant who has a specific rostered commitment to remain continuously and immediately available for recall to duty, at home, outside their normal conditioned hours. b) On-Call - Radio Pager or Mobile Telephone Payable to a civil servant who has a specific rostered commitment to remain continuously and immediately available for recall to duty by means of a radio pager or mobile telephone outside their normal conditioned hours. Civil servants issued with radio pagers/mobile telephones may move around freely, subject to remaining in range of the equipment and being available to return to work quickly, if required. c) Other Call Out Arrangements (DHSS, Water Authority, DOT, DTI, DHA and Customs & Excise) Other arrangements may be made by the IOM Civil Service Joint Negotiating Committee for the call-out arrangements for certain groups of civil servants. 47. On-Call Allowances Amendment: Arrangements (DHSS, Water Authority, DOT, DTI, DHA and Customs & Excise) Other arrangements may be made by the IOM Civil Service Joint Negotiating Committee for the call-out arrangements for certain groups of civil servants. Broposed Amendment: Arrangements (DHSS, Water Authority, DOT, DTI, DHA and Customs & Excise) Other arrangements may be made by the IOM Civil Service Joint Negotiating Committee for the call-out arrangements for certain groups of civil servants who are eligible to claim overtime may claim on-call allowances at the rate to On Call Allowance Rates at Annex C2 (i). Annex C2 (i) no longer exists and has been renamed Annex C2 47. On-Call Allowances Last updated 31 May 2012 - Amendment No 12-009 Corporate Leadership Group — Terms and Conditions Exclusions Provided their pay does not already include an element for on-call commitments, civil servants who are eligible to claim overtime may claim on-call allowances at the rates set out in Annex C2(i) if they satisfy the following conditions: - a) On-Call - Home Payable to a civil servant who has a specific rostered commitment to remain continuously and immediately available for recall to duty, at home, outside their normal conditioned hours. b) On-Call - Radio Pager or Mobile Telephone Payable to a civil servant who has a specific rostered commitment to remain continuously and immediately available for recall to duty by means of a radio pager or mobile telephone outside their normal conditioned hours. Civil servants issued with radio pagers/mobile telephones may move around freely, subject to remaining in range of the equipment and being available to return to work quickly, if required. c) Other Call Out Arrangements (DHSS, Water Authority, DOT, DTI, DHA and Customs & Excise) Other arrangements may be made by the IOM Civil Service Joint Negotiating Committee for the call-out arrangements for certain groups of civil servants. Proposed Amendment: 47. On-Call Allowances Last updated 31 May 2012 - Amendment No 12-009 Corporate Leadership Group — Terms and Conditions Exclusions Provided their pay does not already include an element for on-call commitments, civil servants who are eligible to claim overtime may claim on-call allowances at the rates set out in Annex C2 if they satisfy the following conditions: a) On-Call - Home Payable to a civil servant who has a specific rostered commitment to remain continuously and immediately available for recall	seed SECTION to On Call Allowance Rates at Annex C2 (i). Annex C2 (i) no longer exists and has been renamed Annex C2 47. On-Call Allowances Last updated 31 May 2012 - Amendment No 12-009 Corporate Leadership Group — Terms and Conditions Exclusions Provided their pay does not already include an element for on-call commitments, civil servants who are eligible to claim overtime may claim on-call allowances at the rates set out in Annex C2(i) if they satisfy the following conditions: - a) On-Call - Home Payable to a civil servant who has a specific rostered commitment to remain continuously and immediately available for recall to duty, at home, outside their normal conditioned hours. b) On-Call - Radio Pager or Mobile Telephone Payable to a civil servant who has a specific rostered commitment to remain continuously and immediately available for recall to duty by means of a radio pager or mobile telephone outside their normal conditioned hours. Civil servants issued with radio pagers/mobile telephones may move around freely, subject to remaining in range of the equipment and being available to return to work quickly, if required. c) Other Call Out Arrangements (DHSS, Water Authority, DOT, DTI, DHA and Customs & Excise) Other arrangements may be made by the IOM Civil Service Joint Negotiating Committee for the call-out arrangements for certain groups of civil servants. Proposed Amendment: 47. On-Call Allowances Last updated 31 May 2012 - Amendment No 12-009 Corporate Leadership Group — Terms and Conditions Exclusions Provided their pay does not already include an element for on-call commitments, civil servants who are eligible to claim overtime may claim on-call allowances at the rates set out in Annex C2 if they satisfy the following conditions: a) On-Call - Home Payable to a civil servant who has a specific rostered commitment to remain continuously and immediately available for recall	Proposal:	To amend an incorrect reference within the first paragraph which relates Existing Regs: 47. On-Call Allowances Last updated 31 May 2012 - Amendment No 12-009 Corporate Leadership Group — Terms and Conditions Exclusions Provided their pay does not already include an element for on-call commitments, civil servants who are eligible to claim overtime may claim on-call allowances at the rates set out in Annex C2(i) if they satisfy the following conditions: - a) On-Call - Home Payable to a civil servant who has a specific rostered commitment to remain continuously and immediately available for recall to duty, at home, outside their normal conditioned hours. b) On-Call - Radio Pager or Mobile Telephone Payable to a civil servant who has a specific rostered commitment to remain continuously and immediately available for recall to duty by means of a radio pager or mobile telephone outside their normal conditioned hours. Civil servants issued with radio pagers/mobile telephones may move around freely, subject to remaining in range of the equipment and being available to return to work quickly, if required. c) Other Call Out Arrangements (DHSS, Water Authority, DOT, DTI, DHA and Customs & Excise) Other arrangements may be made by the IOM Civil Service Joint Negotiating Committee for the call-out arrangements for certain groups of civil servants. Proposed Amendment: 47. On-Call Allowances Last updated 31 May 2012 - Amendment No 12-009 Corporate Leadership Group — Terms and Conditions Exclusions Provided their pay does not already include an element for on-call commitments, civil servants who are eligible to claim overtime may claim on-call allowances at the rates set out in Annex C2 if they satisfy the following conditions: a) On-Call - Home Payable to a civil servant who has a specific rostered commitment to remain continuously and immediately available for recall	• Regs: 47. On-Call Allowances Last updated 31 May 2012 - Amendment No 12-009 Corporate Leadership Group — Terms and Conditions Exclusions Provided their pay does not already include an element for on-call commitments, civil servants who are eligible to claim overtime may claim on-call allowances at the rates set out in Annex C2(i) if they satisfy the following conditions: - a) On-Call - Home Payable to a civil servant who has a specific rostered commitment to remain continuously and immediately available for recall to duty, at home, outside their normal conditioned hours. b) On-Call - Radio Pager or Mobile Telephone Payable to a civil servant who has a specific rostered commitment to remain continuously and immediately available for recall to duty by means of a radio pager or mobile telephone outside their normal conditioned hours. Civil servants issued with radio pagers/mobile telephones may move around freely, subject to remaining in range of the equipment and being available to return to work quickly, if required. c) Other Call Out Arrangements (DHSS, Water Authority, DOT, DTI, DHA and Customs & Excise) Other arrangements may be made by the IOM Civil Service Joint Negotiating Committee for the call-out arrangements for certain groups of civil servants. Proposed Amendment: 47. On-Call Allowances Amendment: Amendment No 12-009 Corporate Leadership Group — Terms and Conditions Exclusions Provided their pay does not already include an element for on-call commitments, civil servants who are eligible to claim overtime may claim on-call allowances at the rates set out in Annex C2 if they satisfy the following conditions: a) On-Call - Home Payable to a civil servant who has a specific rostered commitment to remain continuously and immediately available for recall		,,
Last updated 31 May 2012 - Amendment No 12-009 Corporate Leadership Group — Terms and Conditions Exclusions Provided their pay does not already include an element for on-call commitments, civil servants who are eligible to claim overtime may claim on-call allowances at the rates set out in Annex C2(i) if they satisfy the following conditions: - a) On-Call - Home Payable to a civil servant who has a specific rostered commitment to remain continuously and immediately available for recall to duty, at home, outside their normal conditioned hours. b) On-Call - Radio Pager or Mobile Telephone Payable to a civil servant who has a specific rostered commitment to remain continuously and immediately available for recall to duty by means of a radio pager or mobile telephone outside their normal conditioned hours. Civil servants issued with radio pagers/mobile telephones may move around freely, subject to remaining in range of the equipment and being available to return to work quickly, if required. c) Other Call Out Arrangements (DHSS, Water Authority, DOT, DTT, DHA and Customs & Excise) Other arrangements may be made by the IOM Civil Service Joint Negotiating Committee for the call-out arrangements for certain groups of civil servants.	Fristing Corporate Leadership Group — Terms and Conditions Exclusions Provided their pay does not already include an element for on-call commitments, civil servants who are eligible to claim overtime may claim on-call allowances at the rates set out in Annex C2(i) if they satisfy the following conditions: - a) On-Call - Home Payable to a civil servant who has a specific rostered commitment to remain continuously and immediately available for recall to duty, at home, outside their normal conditioned hours. b) On-Call - Radio Pager or Mobile Telephone Payable to a civil servant who has a specific rostered commitment to remain continuously and immediately available for recall to duty by means of a radio pager or mobile telephone outside their normal conditioned hours. Civil servants issued with radio pagers/mobile telephones may move around freely, subject to remaining in range of the equipment and being available to return to work quickly, if required. c) Other Call Out Arrangements (DHSS, Water Authority, DOT, DTT, DHA and Customs & Excise) Other arrangements may be made by the IOM Civil Service Joint Negotiating Committee for the call-out arrangements for certain groups of civil servants. ### Proposed Amendment: 47. On-Call Allowances Last updated 31 May 2012 - Amendment No 12-009 Corporate Leadership Group — Terms and Conditions Exclusions Provided their pay does not already include an element for on-call commitments, civil servants who are eligible to claim overtime may claim on-call allowances at the rates set out in Annex C2 if they satisfy the following conditions: - a) On-Call - Home Payable to a civil servant who has a specific rostered commitment to remain continuously and immediately available for recall		47, Oil Call Allowances
Provided their pay does not already include an element for on-call commitments, civil servants who are eligible to claim overtime may claim on-call allowances at the rates set out in Annex C2(i) if they satisfy the following conditions: - a) On-Call - Home Payable to a civil servant who has a specific rostered commitment to remain continuously and immediately available for recall to duty, at home, outside their normal conditioned hours. b) On-Call - Radio Pager or Mobile Telephone Payable to a civil servant who has a specific rostered commitment to remain continuously and immediately available for recall to duty by means of a radio pager or mobile telephone outside their normal conditioned hours. Civil servants issued with radio pagers/mobile telephones may move around freely, subject to remaining in range of the equipment and being available to return to work quickly, if required. c) Other Call Out Arrangements (DHSS, Water Authority, DOT, DTI, DHA and Customs & Excise) Other arrangements may be made by the IOM Civil Service Joint Negotiating Committee for the call-out arrangements for certain groups of civil servants. ### Proposed Amendment: 47. On-Call Allowances Provided their pay does not already include an element for on-call commitments, civil servants who are eligible to claim overtime may claim on-call allowances at the rates set out in *Annex C2 if they satisfy the following conditions: - a) On-Call - Home Payable to a civil servant who has a specific rostered commitment to remain continuously and immediately available for recall	itegs.	Last undated 31 May 2012 - Amendment No. 12-000
Provided their pay does not already include an element for on-call commitments, civil servants who are eligible to claim overtime may claim on-call allowances at the rates set out in Annex C2(i) if they satisfy the following conditions: - a) On-Call - Home Payable to a civil servant who has a specific rostered commitment to remain continuously and immediately available for recall to duty, at home, outside their normal conditioned hours. b) On-Call - Radio Pager or Mobile Telephone Payable to a civil servant who has a specific rostered commitment to remain continuously and immediately available for recall to duty by means of a radio pager or mobile telephone outside their normal conditioned hours. Civil servants issued with radio pagers/mobile telephones may move around freely, subject to remaining in range of the equipment and being available to return to work quickly, if required. c) Other Call Out Arrangements (DHSS, Water Authority, DOT, DTI, DHA and Customs & Excise) Other arrangements may be made by the IOM Civil Service Joint Negotiating Committee for the call-out arrangements for certain groups of civil servants. Proposed Amendment:* 47. On-Call Allowances Provided their pay does not already include an element for on-call commitments, civil servants who are eligible to claim overtime may claim on-call allowances at the rates set out in Annex C2 if they satisfy the following conditions: - a) On-Call - Home Payable to a civil servant who has a specific rostered commitment to remain continuously and immediately available for recall		Last updated 31 May 2012 - Amendment No 12-009
Provided their pay does not already include an element for on-call commitments, civil servants who are eligible to claim overtime may claim on-call allowances at the rates set out in Annex C2(i) if they satisfy the following conditions: - a) On-Call - Home Payable to a civil servant who has a specific rostered commitment to remain continuously and immediately available for recall to duty, at home, outside their normal conditioned hours. b) On-Call - Radio Pager or Mobile Telephone Payable to a civil servant who has a specific rostered commitment to remain continuously and immediately available for recall to duty by means of a radio pager or mobile telephone outside their normal conditioned hours. Civil servants issued with radio pagers/mobile telephones may move around freely, subject to remaining in range of the equipment and being available to return to work quickly, if required. c) Other Call Out Arrangements (DHSS, Water Authority, DOT, DTI, DHA and Customs & Excise) Other arrangements may be made by the IOM Civil Service Joint Negotiating Committee for the call-out arrangements for certain groups of civil servants. Proposed Amendment:* 47. On-Call Allowances Provided their pay does not already include an element for on-call commitments, civil servants who are eligible to claim overtime may claim on-call allowances at the rates set out in Annex C2 if they satisfy the following conditions: - a) On-Call - Home Payable to a civil servant who has a specific rostered commitment to remain continuously and immediately available for recall		Corporate Leadership Group - Terms and Conditions Evaluations commitments, civil servants who are eligible to claim overtime may claim on-call allowances at the rates set out in Annex C2(i) if they satisfy the following conditions: - a) On-Call - Home Payable to a civil servant who has a specific rostered commitment to remain continuously and immediately available for recall to duty, at home, outside their normal conditioned hours. b) On-Call - Radio Pager or Mobile Telephone Payable to a civil servant who has a specific rostered commitment to remain continuously and immediately available for recall to duty by means of a radio pager or mobile telephone outside their normal conditioned hours. Civil servants issued with radio pagers/mobile telephones may move around freely, subject to remaining in range of the equipment and being available to return to work quickly, if required. c) Other Call Out Arrangements (DHSS, Water Authority, DOT, DTI, DHA and Customs & Excise) Other arrangements may be made by the IOM Civil Service Joint Negotiating Committee for the call-out arrangements for certain groups of civil servants. Proposed Amendment: 47. On-Call Allowances Provided their pay does not already include an element for on-call commitments, civil servants who are eligible to claim overtime may claim on-call allowances at the rates set out in Annex C2 if they satisfy the following conditions: - a) On-Call - Home Payable to a civil servant who has a specific rostered commitment to remain continuously and immediately available for recall		Corporate Leadership Group - Terms and Conditions Exclusions commitments, civil servants who are eligible to claim overtime may claim on-call allowances at the rates set out in Annex C2(i) if they satisfy the following conditions: - a) On-Call - Home Payable to a civil servant who has a specific rostered commitment to remain continuously and immediately available for recall to duty, at home, outside their normal conditioned hours. b) On-Call - Radio Pager or Mobile Telephone Payable to a civil servant who has a specific rostered commitment to remain continuously and immediately available for recall to duty by means of a radio pager or mobile telephone outside their normal conditioned hours. Civil servants issued with radio pagers/mobile telephones may move around freely, subject to remaining in range of the equipment and being available to return to work quickly, if required. c) Other Call Out Arrangements (DHSS, Water Authority, DOT, DTI, DHA and Customs & Excise) Other arrangements may be made by the IOM Civil Service Joint Negotiating Committee for the call-out arrangements for certain groups of civil servants. Proposed Amendment: 47. On-Call Allowances Provided their pay does not already include an element for on-call commitments, civil servants who are eligible to claim overtime may claim on-call allowances at the rates set out in Annex C2 if they satisfy the following conditions: - a) On-Call - Home Payable to a civil servant who has a specific rostered commitment to remain continuously and immediately available for recall		Dury ideal their way, do so not alwards include an element for an eall claim on-call allowances at the rates set out in Annex C2(i) if they satisfy the following conditions: - a) On-Call - Home Payable to a civil servant who has a specific rostered commitment to remain continuously and immediately available for recall to duty, at home, outside their normal conditioned hours. b) On-Call - Radio Pager or Mobile Telephone Payable to a civil servant who has a specific rostered commitment to remain continuously and immediately available for recall to duty by means of a radio pager or mobile telephone outside their normal conditioned hours. Civil servants issued with radio pagers/mobile telephones may move around freely, subject to remaining in range of the equipment and being available to return to work quickly, if required. c) Other Call Out Arrangements (DHSS, Water Authority, DOT, DTI, DHA and Customs & Excise) Other arrangements may be made by the IOM Civil Service Joint Negotiating Committee for the call-out arrangements for certain groups of civil servants. Ton-Call Allowances 47. On-Call Allowances Are updated 31 May 2012 - Amendment No 12-009 Corporate Leadership Group — Terms and Conditions Exclusions Provided their pay does not already include an element for on-call commitments, civil servants who are eligible to claim overtime may claim on-call allowances at the rates set out in Annex C2 if they satisfy the following conditions: - a) On-Call - Home Payable to a civil servant who has a specific rostered commitment to remain continuously and immediately available for recall		The state of the s
a) On-Call - Home Payable to a civil servant who has a specific rostered commitment to remain continuously and immediately available for recall to duty, at home, outside their normal conditioned hours. b) On-Call - Radio Pager or Mobile Telephone Payable to a civil servant who has a specific rostered commitment to remain continuously and immediately available for recall to duty by means of a radio pager or mobile telephone outside their normal conditioned hours. Civil servants issued with radio pagers/mobile telephones may move around freely, subject to remaining in range of the equipment and being available to return to work quickly, if required. c) Other Call Out Arrangements (DHSS, Water Authority, DOT, DTI, DHA and Customs & Excise) Other arrangements may be made by the IOM Civil Service Joint Negotiating Committee for the call-out arrangements for certain groups of civil servants. 47. On-Call Allowances Amendment: 47. On-Call Allowances Provided their pay does not already include an element for on-call commitments, civil servants who are eligible to claim overtime may claim on-call allowances at the rates set out in Annex C2 if they satisfy the following conditions: - a) On-Call - Home Payable to a civil servant who has a specific rostered commitment to remain continuously and immediately available for recall		, a) On-Call - Home Payable to a civil servant who has a specific rostered commitment to remain continuously and immediately available for recall to duty, at home, outside their normal conditioned hours. b) On-Call - Radio Pager or Mobile Telephone Payable to a civil servant who has a specific rostered commitment to remain continuously and immediately available for recall to duty by means of a radio pager or mobile telephone outside their normal conditioned hours. Civil servants issued with radio pagers/mobile telephones may move around freely, subject to remaining in range of the equipment and being available to return to work quickly, if required. c) Other Call Out Arrangements (DHSS, Water Authority, DOT, DTI, DHA and Customs & Excise) Other arrangements may be made by the IOM Civil Service Joint Negotiating Committee for the call-out arrangements for certain groups of civil servants. Proposed Amendment: 47. On-Call Allowances Amendment: 47. On-Call Allowances Provided their pay does not already include an element for on-call commitments, civil servants who are eligible to claim overtime may claim on-call allowances at the rates set out in Annex C2 if they satisfy the following conditions: - a) On-Call - Home Payable to a civil servant who has a specific rostered commitment to remain continuously and immediately available for recall commitment to remain continuously and immediately available for recall to duty, at home, outside their normal conditioned hours. b) On-Call - Radio Pager or Mobile Telephone Payable to a civil servant who has a specific rostered commitment to remain continuously and immediately available for recall to duty by means of a radio pager or mobile telephone outside their normal conditioned hours. Civil servants issued with radio pagers/mobile telephones may move around freely, subject to remaining in range of the equipment and being available to return to work quickly, if required. c) Other Call Out Arrangements (DHSS, Water Authority, DOT, DTI, DHA and Customs & Excise) Other arrangements may be made by the IOM Civil Service Joint Negotiating Committee for the call-out arrangements for certain groups of civil servants. ### Proposed Amendment: 47. On-Call Allowances 47. On-Call Allowances Provided their pay does not already include an element for on-call commitments, civil servants who are eligible to claim overtime may claim on-call allowances at the rates set out in *Annex C2 if they satisfy the following conditions: - a) On-Call - Home Payable to a civil servant who has a specific rostered commitment to remain continuously and immediately available for recall		satisfy the following conditions: - commitment to remain continuously and immediately available for recall to duty, at home, outside their normal conditioned hours. b) On-Call - Radio Pager or Mobile Telephone Payable to a civil servant who has a specific rostered commitment to remain continuously and immediately available for recall to duty by means of a radio pager or mobile telephone outside their normal conditioned hours. Civil servants issued with radio pagers/mobile telephones may move around freely, subject to remaining in range of the equipment and being available to return to work quickly, if required. c) Other Call Out Arrangements (DHSS, Water Authority, DOT, DTI, DHA and Customs & Excise) Other arrangements may be made by the IOM Civil Service Joint Negotiating Committee for the call-out arrangements for certain groups of civil servants. ### Proposed Amendment: 47. On-Call Allowances 47. On-Call Allowances Provided their pay does not already include an element for on-call commitments, civil servants who are eligible to claim overtime may claim on-call allowances at the rates set out in *Annex C2 if they satisfy the following conditions: - a) On-Call - Home Payable to a civil servant who has a specific rostered commitment to remain continuously and immediately available for recall
b) On-Call - Radio Pager or Mobile Telephone Payable to a civil servant who has a specific rostered commitment to remain continuously and immediately available for recall to duty by means of a radio pager or mobile telephone outside their normal conditioned hours. Civil servants issued with radio pagers/mobile telephones may move around freely, subject to remaining in range of the equipment and being available to return to work quickly, if required. c) Other Call Out Arrangements (DHSS, Water Authority, DOT, DTI, DHA and Customs & Excise) Other arrangements may be made by the IOM Civil Service Joint Negotiating Committee for the call-out arrangements for certain groups of civil servants. Proposed Amendment: 47. On-Call Allowances Last updated 31 May 2012 - Amendment No 12-009 Corporate Leadership Group — Terms and Conditions Exclusions Provided their pay does not already include an element for on-call commitments, civil servants who are eligible to claim overtime may claim on-call allowances at the rates set out in Annex C2 if they satisfy the following conditions: - a) On-Call - Home Payable to a civil servant who has a specific rostered commitment to remain continuously and immediately available for recall
b) On-Call - Radio Pager or Mobile Telephone Payable to a civil servant who has a specific rostered commitment to remain continuously and immediately available for recall to duty by means of a radio pager or mobile telephone outside their normal conditioned hours. Civil servants issued with radio pagers/mobile telephones may move around freely, subject to remaining in range of the equipment and being available to return to work quickly, if required. c) Other Call Out Arrangements (DHSS, Water Authority, DOT, DTI, DHA and Customs & Excise) Other arrangements may be made by the IOM Civil Service Joint Negotiating Committee for the call-out arrangements for certain groups of civil servants. ### 47. On-Call Allowances ### 47. On-Call Allowances ### 47. On-Call Allowances ### Amendment: ### 2009 Corporate Leadership Group — Terms and Conditions Exclusions Provided their pay does not already include an element for on-call commitments, civil servants who are eligible to claim overtime may claim on-call allowances at the rates set out in Annex C2 if they satisfy the following conditions: - a) On-Call - Home Payable to a civil servant who has a specific rostered commitment to remain continuously and immediately available for recall who has a specific rostered commitment to remain continuously and immediately available for recall to duty by means of a radio pager or mobile telephone outside their normal conditioned hours. Civil servants issued with radio pagers/mobile telephones may move around freely, subject to remaining in range of the equipment and being available to return to work quickly, if required. c) Other Call Out Arrangements (DHSS, Water Authority, DOT, DTI, DHA and Customs & Excise) Other arrangements may be made by the IOM Civil Service Joint Negotiating Committee for the call-out arrangements for certain groups of civil servants. Proposed Amendment: 47. On-Call Allowances Last updated 31 May 2012 - Amendment No 12-009 Corporate Leadership Group — Terms and Conditions Exclusions Provided their pay does not already include an element for on-call commitments, civil servants who are eligible to claim overtime may claim on-call allowances at the rates set out in Annex C2 if they satisfy the following conditions: - a) On-Call - Home Payable to a civil servant who has a specific rostered commitment to remain continuously and immediately available for recall		to duty, at home, outside their normal conditioned hours.
who has a specific rostered commitment to remain continuously and immediately available for recall to duty by means of a radio pager or mobile telephone outside their normal conditioned hours. Civil servants issued with radio pagers/mobile telephones may move around freely, subject to remaining in range of the equipment and being available to return to work quickly, if required. c) Other Call Out Arrangements (DHSS, Water Authority, DOT, DTI, DHA and Customs & Excise) Other arrangements may be made by the IOM Civil Service Joint Negotiating Committee for the call-out arrangements for certain groups of civil servants. Proposed Amendment: 47. On-Call Allowances Last updated 31 May 2012 - Amendment No 12-009 Corporate Leadership Group — Terms and Conditions Exclusions Provided their pay does not already include an element for on-call commitments, civil servants who are eligible to claim overtime may claim on-call allowances at the rates set out in Annex C2 if they satisfy the following conditions: - a) On-Call - Home Payable to a civil servant who has a specific rostered commitment to remain continuously and immediately available for recall who has a specific rostered commitment to remain continuously and immediately available for recall to duty by means of a radio pager or mobile telephone outside their normal conditioned hours. Civil servants issued with radio pagers/mobile telephones may move around freely, subject to remaining in range of the equipment and being available to return to work quickly, if required. c) Other Call Out Arrangements (DHSS, Water Authority, DOT, DTI, DHA and Customs & Excise) Other arrangements may be made by the IOM Civil Service Joint Negotiating Committee for the call-out arrangements for certain groups of civil servants. Proposed Amendment: 47. On-Call Allowances Last updated 31 May 2012 - Amendment No 12-009 Corporate Leadership Group — Terms and Conditions Exclusions Provided their pay does not already include an element for on-call commitments, civil servants who are eligible to claim overtime may claim on-call allowances at the rates set out in Annex C2 if they satisfy the following conditions: - a) On-Call - Home Payable to a civil servant who has a specific rostered commitment to remain continuously and immediately available for recall		b) On-Call - Radio Pager or Mobile Telephone Payable to a civil servant immediately available for recall to duty by means of a radio pager or mobile telephone outside their normal conditioned hours. Civil servants issued with radio pagers/mobile telephones may move around freely, subject to remaining in range of the equipment and being available to return to work quickly, if required. c) Other Call Out Arrangements (DHSS, Water Authority, DOT, DTI, DHA and Customs & Excise) Other arrangements may be made by the IOM Civil Service Joint Negotiating Committee for the call-out arrangements for certain groups of civil servants. Proposed Amendment: 47. On-Call Allowances Last updated 31 May 2012 - Amendment No 12-009 Corporate Leadership Group — Terms and Conditions Exclusions Provided their pay does not already include an element for on-call commitments, civil servants who are eligible to claim overtime may claim on-call allowances at the rates set out in Annex C2 if they satisfy the following conditions: - a) On-Call - Home Payable to a civil servant who has a specific rostered commitment to remain continuously and immediately available for recall mobile telephone outside their normal conditioned hours. Civil servants issued with radio pagers/mobile telephones may move around freely, subject to remaining in range of the equipment and being available to return to work quickly, if required. c) Other Call Out Arrangements (DHSS, Water Authority, DOT, DTI, DHA and Customs & Excise) Other arrangements may be made by the IOM Civil Service Joint Negotiating Committee for the call-out arrangements for certain groups of civil servants. Proposed Amendment: 47. On-Call Allowances Last updated 31 May 2012 - Amendment No 12-009 Corporate Leadership Group — Terms and Conditions Exclusions Provided their pay does not already include an element for on-call commitments, civil servants who are eligible to claim overtime may claim on-call allowances at the rates set out in Annex C2 if they satisfy the following conditions: - a) On-Call - Home Payable to a civil servant who has a specific rostered commitment to remain continuously and immediately available for recall issued with radio pagers/mobile telephones may move around freely, subject to remaining in range of the equipment and being available to return to work quickly, if required. c) Other Call Out Arrangements (DHSS, Water Authority, DOT, DTI, DHA and Customs & Excise) Other arrangements may be made by the IOM Civil Service Joint Negotiating Committee for the call-out arrangements for certain groups of civil servants. Proposed Amendment: 47. On-Call Allowances Last updated 31 May 2012 - Amendment No 12-009 Corporate Leadership Group — Terms and Conditions Exclusions Provided their pay does not already include an element for on-call commitments, civil servants who are eligible to claim overtime may claim on-call allowances at the rates set out in Annex C2 if they satisfy the following conditions: - a) On-Call - Home Payable to a civil servant who has a specific rostered commitment to remain continuously and immediately available for recall subject to remaining in range of the equipment and being available to return to work quickly, if required. c) Other Call Out Arrangements (DHSS, Water Authority, DOT, DTI, DHA and Customs & Excise) Other arrangements may be made by the IOM Civil Service Joint Negotiating Committee for the call-out arrangements for certain groups of civil servants. Proposed Amendment: 47. On-Call Allowances Last updated 31 May 2012 - Amendment No 12-009 Corporate Leadership Group — Terms and Conditions Exclusions Provided their pay does not already include an element for on-call commitments, civil servants who are eligible to claim overtime may claim on-call allowances at the rates set out in Annex C2 if they satisfy the following conditions: - a) On-Call - Home Payable to a civil servant who has a specific rostered commitment to remain continuously and immediately available for recall		The supplication of the contraction of the contract
c) Other Call Out Arrangements (DHSS, Water Authority, DOT, DTI, DHA and Customs & Excise) Other arrangements may be made by the IOM Civil Service Joint Negotiating Committee for the call-out arrangements for certain groups of civil servants. ### Proposed Amendment: ### 47. On-Call Allowances ### Last updated 31 May 2012 - Amendment No 12-009 Corporate Leadership Group — Terms and Conditions Exclusions Provided their pay does not already include an element for on-call commitments, civil servants who are eligible to claim overtime may claim on-call allowances at the rates set out in Annex C2 if they satisfy the following conditions: - a) On-Call - Home Payable to a civil servant who has a specific rostered commitment to remain continuously and immediately available for recall
c) Other Call Out Arrangements (DHSS, Water Authority, DOT, DTI, DHA and Customs & Excise) Other arrangements may be made by the IOM Civil Service Joint Negotiating Committee for the call-out arrangements for certain groups of civil servants. Proposed Amendment: 47. On-Call Allowances Last updated 31 May 2012 - Amendment No 12-009 Corporate Leadership Group — Terms and Conditions Exclusions Provided their pay does not already include an element for on-call commitments, civil servants who are eligible to claim overtime may claim on-call allowances at the rates set out in Annex C2 if they satisfy the following conditions: - a) On-Call - Home Payable to a civil servant who has a specific rostered commitment to remain continuously and immediately available for recall and Customs & Excise) Other arrangements may be made by the IOM Civil Service Joint Negotiating Committee for the call-out arrangements for certain groups of civil servants. 47. On-Call Allowances 47. On-Call Allowances Last updated 31 May 2012 - Amendment No 12-009 Corporate Leadership Group — Terms and Conditions Exclusions Provided their pay does not already include an element for on-call commitments, civil servants who are eligible to claim overtime may claim on-call allowances at the rates set out in Annex C2 if they satisfy the following conditions: - a) On-Call - Home Payable to a civil servant who has a specific rostered commitment to remain continuously and immediately available for recall		return to work quickly, it required.
and Customs & Excise) Other arrangements may be made by the IOM Civil Service Joint Negotiating Committee for the call-out arrangements for certain groups of civil servants. 47. On-Call Allowances 47. On-Call Allowances Last updated 31 May 2012 - Amendment No 12-009 Corporate Leadership Group — Terms and Conditions Exclusions Provided their pay does not already include an element for on-call commitments, civil servants who are eligible to claim overtime may claim on-call allowances at the rates set out in Annex C2 if they satisfy the following conditions: - a) On-Call - Home Payable to a civil servant who has a specific rostered commitment to remain continuously and immediately available for recall) out of the company Civil Service Joint Negotiating Committee for the call-out arrangements for certain groups of civil servants. 47. On-Call Allowances Last updated 31 May 2012 - Amendment No 12-009 Corporate Leadership Group — Terms and Conditions Exclusions Provided their pay does not already include an element for on-call commitments, civil servants who are eligible to claim overtime may claim on-call allowances at the rates set out in Annex C2 if they satisfy the following conditions: - a) On-Call - Home Payable to a civil servant who has a specific rostered commitment to remain continuously and immediately available for recall Proposed Amendment: 47. On-Call Allowances Last updated 31 May 2012 - Amendment No 12-009 Corporate Leadership Group — Terms and Conditions Exclusions Provided their pay does not already include an element for on-call commitments, civil servants who are eligible to claim overtime may claim on-call allowances at the rates set out in Annex C2 if they satisfy the following conditions: - a) On-Call - Home Payable to a civil servant who has a specific rostered commitment to remain continuously and immediately available for recall Proposed Amendment: 47. On-Call Allowances Last updated 31 May 2012 - Amendment No 12-009 Corporate Leadership Group — Terms and Conditions Exclusions Provided their pay does not already include an element for on-call commitments, civil servants who are eligible to claim overtime may claim on-call allowances at the rates set out in Annex C2 if they satisfy the following conditions: - a) On-Call - Home Payable to a civil servant who has a specific rostered commitment to remain continuously and immediately available for recall Amendment: Last updated 31 May 2012 - Amendment No 12-009 Corporate Leadership Group - Terms and Conditions Exclusions Provided their pay does not already include an element for on-call commitments, civil servants who are eligible to claim overtime may claim on-call allowances at the rates set out in Annex C2 if they satisfy the following conditions: - a) On-Call - Home Payable to a civil servant who has a specific rostered commitment to remain continuously and immediately available for recall		for certain groups of civil servants.
Amendment: Last updated 31 May 2012 - Amendment No 12-009 Corporate Leadership Group - Terms and Conditions Exclusions Provided their pay does not already include an element for on-call commitments, civil servants who are eligible to claim overtime may claim on-call allowances at the rates set out in Annex C2 if they satisfy the following conditions: - a) On-Call - Home Payable to a civil servant who has a specific rostered commitment to remain continuously and immediately available for recall Amendment: Last updated 31 May 2012 - Amendment No 12-009 Corporate Leadership Group - Terms and Conditions Exclusions Provided their pay does not already include an element for on-call commitments, civil servants who are eligible to claim overtime may claim on-call allowances at the rates set out in Annex C2 if they satisfy the following conditions: - a) On-Call - Home Payable to a civil servant who has a specific rostered commitment to remain continuously and immediately available for recall
Last updated 31 May 2012 - Amendment No 12-009 Corporate Leadership Group - Terms and Conditions Exclusions Provided their pay does not already include an element for on-call commitments, civil servants who are eligible to claim overtime may claim on-call allowances at the rates set out in Annex C2 if they satisfy the following conditions: - a) On-Call - Home Payable to a civil servant who has a specific rostered commitment to remain continuously and immediately available for recall	Proposed	47. On-Call Allowances
Corporate Leadership Group – Terms and Conditions Exclusions Provided their pay does not already include an element for on-call commitments, civil servants who are eligible to claim overtime may claim on-call allowances at the rates set out in Annex C2 if they satisfy the following conditions: - a) On-Call - Home Payable to a civil servant who has a specific rostered commitment to remain continuously and immediately available for recall	Amendment:
Corporate Leadership Group – Terms and Conditions Exclusions Provided their pay does not already include an element for on-call commitments, civil servants who are eligible to claim overtime may claim on-call allowances at the rates set out in Annex C2 if they satisfy the following conditions: - a) On-Call - Home Payable to a civil servant who has a specific rostered commitment to remain continuously and immediately available for recall		Last updated 31 May 2012 - Amendment No 12-009
Provided their pay does not already include an element for on-call commitments, civil servants who are eligible to claim overtime may claim on-call allowances at the rates set out in Annex C2 if they satisfy the following conditions: - a) On-Call - Home Payable to a civil servant who has a specific rostered commitment to remain continuously and immediately available for recall Provided their pay does not already include an element for on-call commitments, civil servants who are eligible to claim overtime may claim on-call allowances at the rates set out in Annex C2 if they satisfy the following conditions: - a) On-Call - Home Payable to a civil servant who has a specific rostered commitment to remain continuously and immediately available for recall		Corporate Leadership Group – Terms and Conditions Exclusions commitments, civil servants who are eligible to claim overtime may claim on-call allowances at the rates set out in Annex C2 if they satisfy the following conditions: - a) On-Call - Home Payable to a civil servant who has a specific rostered commitment to remain continuously and immediately available for recall commitments, civil servants who are eligible to claim overtime may claim on-call allowances at the rates set out in Annex C2 if they satisfy the following conditions: - a) On-Call - Home Payable to a civil servant who has a specific rostered commitment to remain continuously and immediately available for recall		Provided their pay does not already include an element for on-call claim on-call allowances at the rates set out in Annex C2 if they satisfy the following conditions: - a) On-Call - Home Payable to a civil servant who has a specific rostered commitment to remain continuously and immediately available for recall
a) On-Call - Home Payable to a civil servant who has a specific rostered commitment to remain continuously and immediately available for recall		AND REPORT OF THE PROPERTY OF
a) On-Call - Home Payable to a civil servant who has a specific rostered commitment to remain continuously and immediately available for recall commitment to remain continuously and immediately available for recall commitment to remain continuously and immediately available for recall		a) On Call Hama Dayable to a civil content who has a chasife wastered
		The state of the second and the second secon to duty, at home, outside their normal conditioned hours.		[The control of the to duty, at home, outside their normal conditioned hours.

- b) On-Call Radio Pager or Mobile Telephone Payable to a civil servant who has a specific rostered commitment to remain continuously and immediately available for recall to duty by means of a radio pager or mobile telephone outside their normal conditioned hours. Civil servants issued with radio pagers/mobile telephones may move around freely, subject to remaining in range of the equipment and being available to return to work quickly, if required.
- c) Other Call Out Arrangements (DHSS, Water Authority, DOT, DTI, DHA and Customs & Excise) Other arrangements may be made by the IOM Civil Service Joint Negotiating Committee for the call-out arrangements for certain groups of civil servants.

Agreed and authorised by Joint Secretaries of JNC – n/a amending incorrect reference. Date for CSC _____ Date _____ I authorise the above amendment to be incorporated in the Civil Service regulations and to be uploaded on to the intranet. An IOM Government All Staff notice prior to implementation is* / is not* required (please delete as appropriate) Head of Industrial Relations and Policy Section Instruction for implementation: A. Mcfee Passed to A Haxby Date 15/11/12 By Date regs updated 15 11 12 1 Previous regulation amendment reference (if any):