Sharing Results

- Keep it conversational in the meeting – this is another opportunity to build trust and openness. Ask people to contribute their perspective in the meeting. Check whether the results are consistent with what people think and feel. It is a good opportunity to sense check and create ongoing dialogue which builds trust.
- Focus – Be wary of spending too much time comparing results to other areas of your organisation. This is an opportunity to focus on how your team feel and making the environment better for them.
- Action Plan – Ensure your action plan aligns with the work taking place to address feedback for the business as a whole. Make sure actions are realistic and avoid a long list of tasks. Create a specific action plan with your team that build on strengths and address areas of concern. You can use the template provided. Attribute jobs / timings / commitments to individuals or groups.
- Follow Up – Book in time to follow-up on actions. You'll need to decide whether that is weekly / monthly / quarterly. Everyone should be kept up to date on progress and feel the importance of contributing to improving the culture.
- Share – Share your experience with other managers / your programme lead and help improve the impact feedback has on your culture and to improve this programme.

CELEBRATE

The things we do well:

THINK ABOUT HOW WE CAN BUILD ON OUR STRENGTHS AND LEARN WHAT WE ARE GOOD AT.

INVESTIGATE

Are there any other opportunities coming out of the results that we want to explore further?

HOW COULD WE INVESTIGATE? THROUGH LOOKING AT THE DATA IN MORE DETAIL OR THROUGH DISCUSSIONS WITH STAFF?

OPPORTUNITIES

Areas we need to focus on and turn into action plans:

WHAT ARE THE KEY THINGS WE NEED TO IMPROVE TO MAKE WORKING HERE BETTER?
